MINISTRY DURING A PANDEMIC

All Ways And Means

During the Covid Pandemic, in an attempt to stop the rapidly spreading illness, doors were shuttered and gathering to worship and serve became a challenge. However people around the world came together including our Salvatorian priests and brothers. We continued to minister through all ways and means possible, throughout the Pandemic of 2020. Safely providing meals for students, ministering in hospitals and nursing homes, offering reconciliation and spiritual direction via phone, bringing activities and celebrations as well as Masses to their congregations and the greater community through live streaming events. Blogging, sharing perspectives and hope through digital channels and continuing to bring the Gospel to all through these extraordinary and unprecedented times.

This is a snap shot of what we put into play to stay connected during these unprecedented times.
