

Memories of St. Nazianz - Salvatorian Seminary

This audio-video DVD program brings back the memories of Salvatorian Seminary in St. Nazianz, Wisconsin, which was run by the Society of the Divine Savior (Salvatorian Fathers and Brothers) from the early 1900's to the late 1960's.

The audio-video presentations on this DVD contain over 600 photos taken by the late Fr. Leo Herbst SDS from 1936 to 1968, during his years as a teacher in the seminary.

There are two presentations on this DVD:

1 - Memories of St. Nazianz - Salvatorian Seminary

Take a journey through a typical school-year in the life of the many thousands of seminarians who lived at the school in eastern Wisconsin through the years. Their daily life certainly had its share of study and prayer, but there was also plenty of time for sports, recreation, and the enjoyment of friendships which would last a lifetime. You'll also see pictures from the famed Passion Play, an annual presentation at the school for many years. (Approximately 45 mins. long)

2 - Construction & Tour of the Campus

See the construction of the buildings and the many changes that took place on the campus over the years. We'll take you on a tour of each of the buildings and the beautiful grounds of the seminary, as well as the Salvatorian Monastery. (Approximately 10 mins. long)

This DVD can be viewed on a regular DVD player (*see note below ) or on your PC's DVD-rom drive. You can also view the photos individually on your computer's drive, using the disc's directories and any graphics-viewing program. This will be especially appreciated by former students who want to spend a little more time with each of the photos, or for anyone who appreciates the stunning photography of Fr. Leo Herbst.

 (Please note: We create each DVD in the Salvatorian Archives using DVD-R discs. While these discs will play on newer "multi-format" DVD players and on all PC DVD-rom drives, they might not play on older or less expensive DVD players that are capable of showing only DVD movies.)*

For anyone who would like to see what seminary life was like in those years, this DVD will give you a good idea of that life, and will help create a mood where you can relive those days right along with the students.

This DVD is available for a donation of $15 each.
